From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church! If you are our guest, please take a moment to register as a guest using the tear-off portion of this bulletin. We ask that you place this registration card in the offering plate as we receive our offering this morning. Thank you for joining us for worship this morning. Guests, please excuse us for just a moment this morning as we conduct some very important annual business as a church. We will be nominating deacons. We will try to do this as quickly as possible as not to detract from our worship of Almighty God this morning.

Our focus for worship this morning is on the family. Many of you will be spending time with family this week. I've got a question for you: Are you ready to do that? Are you ready to be Jesus to your family this week? We will look at a familiar story—the Prodigal Son—for life application. We will take some time in our morning worship to have a special time of parent-child dedication. Be praying for these thankful families as they dedicate themselves to the LORD.

I invite you back tonight as we carry out a couple of additional matters of annual church business in our annual membership meeting. First, we will take a moment to adopt our operating budget for 2013. In addition, we will elect various committees for our church.

Finally, don't forget that this week, we will be having Wednesday on Tuesday. All scheduled events for Wednesday will occur on Tuesday evening this week.

Steve

Meet Our New Administrative Pastor

Ray Swift will join our ministerial staff November 26 as Administrative Pastor. Ray comes to First Baptist from a similar position at First Baptist Church of Moss Bluff, where he has served for eight years. Prior to that he pastored churches in Oklahoma for twelve years, and also served in music and youth ministry for several years.

Ray is a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He and his wife, Diana, have three children, ages 15, 12, and 9. We look forward to having the Swift family as a part of First Baptist Lafayette soon.
