Congratulations

To Jeff and Andrea Gonsoulin in the birth of their daughter, Evelyn Camille Gonsoulin.

Thank You

I want to thank my church family for the prayers and support you have given me during a difficult time. The calls, cards, flowers, and outpouring of love and support was very appreciated. Please continue to pray for me and my family for healing.

Delores Babineaux

Thank you all so very much! My dad, Bill Shirey, who lost his wife, Emily, just two months ago, had very serious neck surgery last week. I came from North Carolina to take care of him, but there is no way I could have done this without the loving support of so many dear church friends. Your prayers, encouraging visits, and delicious food got us through this difficult time. As I return to North Carolina, it is an incredible comfort to know that he has such a loving church family here. Thank you again and again.

Beth Shirey

Through the medical problems and surgery I have had, we have been lifted up in prayer. We have felt the presence of God and the comfort of this wonderful family of believers. Things are moving along better than expected, and we would like to thank the entire church community for their love.

“World Premiere” of Children’s Musical Set for Wednesday at 6 p.m.

Our Children’s Choir will present the “World Premiere” of a new musical this Wednesday, March 5, in our Sanctuary. “Fact or Fiction” is an entertaining presentation of the Christmas story, written by Celeste Clydesdale.

The musical is about a television game show, where students from two competing schools have to determine if statements about the Christmas story are “fact or fiction.” Children learn about being the “light of the world,” “not being afraid,” and the “joy of knowing Christ,” as the musical progresses. In the final scene, they also learn how to “forgive others as Jesus forgave.” Creative original songs support the drama.

The program will be videotaped and several thousand copies of the DVD will be distributed to churches interested in presenting the musical during the Christmas season. Plan to be here at 6:00 p.m. Wednesday for this enjoyable presentation.

At First Baptist Lafayette our core values are taken from Psalm 71:14-19... to preach the same gospel, to the next generation, until all the nations know, and do it all for God’s glory.

Your Response

At the invitation time in each service we offer an opportunity for you to publicly make one of the following decisions...

- ...to accept Jesus Christ as your personal Savior.
...to join First Baptist by baptism.
...to rededicate your life to Christ.
...to dedicate your life to vocational Christian service.
...to transfer your membership from another Baptist church.
...to join First Baptist from another denomination.

From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church! This is the day that the Lord has made. If you are our guest, please take a moment to register as a guest using the tear-off portion of this bulletin. We ask that you bring this registration card to the Information Desk. We have a gift there for you that we want you to have. You may also place this registration card in the offering plate as we receive our offering this morning.

We are putting our series from Ephesians 6:10-18 on hold for one week this morning. Instead, Bro. Ray Swift will be our preacher. Tonight, you will hear a message from our College Associate, Dustin Curtis.

As the month of March kicks off, we have great opportunity to be involved in missions. We have two groups involved in mission trips this morning. We have a group of four, led by Brad Gill, in India this morning. In addition, we have a group of seven, led by Andrea McKenzie, at a college evangelism mission called Beach Reach. By the end of the week, we will have another group of three headed to Alaska. I know that you will join me in praying for all of these groups. At the end of the month, Saturday, March 29, we all have an opportunity with our local missions day that we call, “First Baptist Loves Lafayette” Day.

Finally, this Wednesday night, March 5, our Children’s Choir will be presenting a musical called, “Fact or Fiction.” So, instead of our regular meeting in Assembly Room 1, we will all join together in the Sanctuary.

Bryan College Chorale in Concert March 13

The Bryan College Chorale from Dayton, Tennessee, will present a concert of sacred choral music Thursday, March 13. The program will begin at 7:00 p.m. in the church Sanctuary.

The 44 singers have performed throughout the U.S. and toured Europe. The current tour will take them through four states. The group performs a variety of spirituals, classical, and gospel music.

We are still in need of four homes that can house two students each overnight. If you can help, contact Karyn Laing at 593-3648, or email her at karyn.laing@fbclaf.org.

When You’ve Been With Jesus John 4:7-30

Sermon Notes

Teaching Principle: tend to act like the they hang out with.

The Bible teaches that all believers should naturally want to spend time with Jesus.

1. is Acknowledged, Confessed & Forgiven

John 4:15-19 (*18b)

“When you do not fear God, you will not fear sin - and when you lose the fear of God there is nothing to restrain you.” Holiness by Henry Blackaby

2. You Will Want to Only Him

John 4:23-24

“The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, a broken and a contrite heart—these, O God, You will not despise.” Psalm 51:17

3. You Find He’s You Need

John 4:13-14

, , , is all you need in this life and the next life.
