LET HOPE IN

Hope is vital for sustaining life. It’s been said that “A person can live seven days without water, three minutes without oxygen, but not a second without hope.” In our current Sunday School unit, LET HOPE IN, Pete Wilson writes, “We can have a sure hope regardless of our past. When we let hope in, we can move beyond the regrets and shame. A hope-filled life is not a problem-free life. But we are no longer bound or hindered by the past.”

All age groups are studying the same scripture passages during this unit. Talk with your friends and family this week about today’s lesson.

At First Baptist Lafayette
our core values are taken from Psalm 71:14-19...
to preach the same gospel,
to the next generation,
until all the nations know,
and do it all for God’s glory.

No Family Plans Easter Sunday?
Our new Hispanic mission church, Iglesia Bautista el Renuevo, is looking for volunteers to barbecue hamburgers/hotdogs for a fellowship after their launch service on Easter Sunday. Volunteers need to start cooking at 11:00 a.m. If you are willing to help, contact Andrea McKenzie at 593-3655, or fill out the form below and drop it in the offering plate.

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

If you are our guest, we have a special gift for you after today's service. So that we can get to know you better, please fill out both sides of this tear-off section and bring it to the Information Center near the columns. We have a gift bag ready for you.

[illegible]

Welcome to First Baptist Church! We welcome those who may be at First Baptist for the first time. We trust that you will find us friendly. More importantly, we pray that God would use this worship time to draw you closer to Him. We would also encourage you to try one of our small-group Sunday School classes. You can find information about these classes, and lots of other news about First Baptist at our Information Center. We also have a gift waiting for you at the Information Center if you are our guest.

I hope that you have made your plans to be with us for our Easter Week Services. In addition to the usual Sunday morning services, we will have a Maundy Thursday Service and a Good Friday Service. Both of these additional worship experiences will begin at 7:00 p.m. I would encourage you to invite friends to these services. Thursday night's service will include the Observance of the Lord's Supper. Friday night's service is a remembrance centered around the cross.

Because of our extra services and because of Easter Day, we will not be having a 6:00 p.m. Evening Worship next Sunday night.

Steve
