Women's Mission to New Orleans

December 12-13 we will travel to Baptist Friendship House to host their annual Christmas party for women and children living in their transitional housing. Volunteers are needed to serve and prepare lunch, help children with crafts, the gift distribution, carol sing-along, and to minister to residents.

Baptist Friendship House is a ministry of the North American Mission Board and the New Orleans Baptist Association.

Ministries include: Day Programs for homeless men, women and children; Transitional Housing (for homeless women and children); Mentoring for teenage girls after school; Human Trafficking: awareness, advocacy, and assistance for victims.

Cost of the trip is $35 with a limit of 30 people. The deadline to sign up is November 30. Email andrea.mckenzie@fbclaf.org or call 593-3655 for more information.

From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church! If you are our guest, please take a moment to register as a guest using the tear-off portion of this bulletin.

Thank you for joining us for worship this morning. We invite you to bring this item to the Guest Information Desk located in the lobby. We have a gift waiting for you there. Guests, please excuse us for just a moment this morning as we conduct some very important annual business as a church. We will be nominating deacons. We will try to do this as quickly as possible as not to detract from our worship of Almighty God this morning.

I invite you back tonight as we carry out a couple of additional matters of annual church business in our annual membership meeting. First, we will take a moment to adopt our operating budget for 2015. In addition, we will elect various committees for our church. I will also bring a report focused on our next steps in our Do Something strategy.

Church, you were a tremendous blessing to me as we hosted the Louisiana Baptist Convention. Everywhere I turned, people stopped to tell me what an outstanding job we were doing in hosting the Convention. You did a fantastic job, indeed. Our staff worked hard. I am thankful for each of them. Please continue to pray for me that I will represent the Lord well and lead our State Convention well in the second and final year as president.

Steve
