Sympathy

To Bob and John Szabo in the death of their father, A.J. Szabo.

To Sean Ratzlaff in the death of his mother, Carol Ratzlaff Dean.

To Jenny Duplech in the death of her sister, Georgiana Reed.

In its different forms, abuse deadens the emotions, slays self-worth, cripples the mind, even destroys the body.

mending the soul

God delights in mending shattered souls.

From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church! If you are our guest, please take a moment to complete the guest registration card found also in this bulletin. You are encouraged to bring this card to our Information Desk where we have a gift waiting for you. Again, to all of you, thank you for your faithfulness in attendance through the summer.

Today, our sermon will focus on one of the most important passages in the Old Testament—Genesis 22. F.B. Meyer, a preacher and Bible commentator of the late 1800s and early 1900s, said of this passage: "So long as men live in this world, they will turn to this story with unwaning interest." In our continuing series on the altars of Genesis, we will examine this passage from the perspective that "Some Altars are Hard."

Tonight, we will not be meeting here at 1100 Lee Avenue. Instead, we have a fellowship planned at Kart Ranch on the Youngsville Highway from 5-8 p.m. The cost to you is only $5/person. Someone might ask, "Why are we doing this?" There is one reason. It is ok, Biblical, and edifying to fellowship together. Most of our fellowship certainly should and does happen around spiritual activities like Bible study, worship, and prayer. However, occasionally, it is rewarding to have fellowship focused on an activity just for fun. It brings multiple generations together, causes us to have conversation with others we otherwise might not have, and affords us the opportunity to get out into our community. Please join us tonight.

Please remember our One Day celebration slated this year for September 6. We will have a combined worship service at 10 a.m. on that particular morning. I want to urge everyone, even though this will be Labor Day Weekend, to give maximum effort to join us for this special worship gathering.

Steve
