From Our Pastor

Today, we celebrate what God has done in the past year and look forward to what is to come. Thanks for being here for one Sunday morning service at 10:00 a.m. God is pleased, and we are blessed by this gathering of the church. One of the disadvantages of our regular schedule is that we do not get to experience the joy, worship, and decisions that are made in the other service. The truth is that both services are doing well and week by week very exciting. Since we had this service last year, both services have grown in attendance. Both services give evidence of God powerfully at work in our church, individual lives, and community. We don't always meet those of the opposite service to the one we might attend. I hope you take the opportunity this morning to connect to someone whom you have never met.

If you are our guest, thank you for joining us today. We would love to be able to get to know you. Take a moment to register as a guest using the registration card attached to the bulletin. We invite you to bring your card to the Information Desk. We have a gift waiting for you there.

Next Sunday, we launch an effort that we are calling the "Hebrews Initiative." The Hebrews Initiative consists of several components: a daily Bible reading plan, a daily prayer objective, a weekly Scripture to memorize, the Sunday School lesson, and both the morning and evening message for 12 weeks. I am very excited to get started. Make sure you get your reading and prayer guide today! That starts tomorrow!

Steve
