From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church! We are so glad to have you gathered with us today to worship the LORD. To our guests, we say a most special welcome! We hope you experience authentic worship of God and authentic fellowship with the people of God. If you are a guest, please take a moment to complete the guest registration column found in this bulletin. We invite you to bring this item to the Information Center where we have a gift waiting for you.

Our subject today is the “Peace of God.” Our main verse is Colossians 3:15. “And let the peace of the Messiah to which you were called in one body, control your hearts.”

This afternoon our Support Group Ministry is hosting a special “Surviving the Holidays” Seminar. "Surviving the Holidays" is especially for people who are grieving a loved one’s death, or who recently experienced a separation or divorce. The seminar is this afternoon from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. During this free seminar you will learn how to deal with the many emotions you’ll face during the holidays, what to do about traditions and other coming changes, helpful tips for surviving social events, and how to discover hope for your future. Perhaps you or someone you know will benefit from this opportunity.

We are dedicating tonight’s 6:00 p.m. service to a guided prayer time concerning our elections this Tuesday. Make tonight a priority. If we are as concerned as we say we are about the spiritual condition of our country, we ought to have a standing room only crowd.

Thank You

To our Church Family,
There are no words to express our gratitude for the love you’ve shown our family in Danny’s illness and his passing. The visits, cards, words of care, food and your presence is overwhelming. I have to thank each of you for speaking to Danny as he declined. It always brought a smile to his face.
