From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church. If you are our guest, thank you for joining us today. We would love to be able to get to know you. Take a moment to register as a guest using the registration card attached to the bulletin. We invite you to bring this registration card to the Information Desk located near the front columns. We have a gift waiting for you there. At First Baptist Church we are passionate about two things. First, we want to connect you to Jesus. Second we want to connect you to some other folks who can help you in a life-long journey to follow Jesus.

As Christians, this is a really exciting week! As we celebrate Easter, we have several opportunities for worship and reflection. First, join us back tonight for a Lord’s Supper Service. We will be meeting in the Fellowship Hall tonight for this service. We are doing this for a variety of reasons, but you will have to come back tonight to understand why. Second, I hope you have planned to worship through the presentation of Saviour, a musical oratorio with accompanying ballet, on either Thursday or Friday. Both presentations begin at 7:00 p.m. Then, of course, next Sunday, Easter Sunday, we will gather for our morning worship services. We will not have an evening service on Easter Sunday. I encourage you to invite someone to be with you for these special times of worship.

Thank you to everyone who participated in “Here for You, Acadiana” yesterday. Let us pray that the seeds of evangelism planted through word and deed will produce a great harvest.

Steve

Women’s Ministry Book Club

The next meeting of the Women’s Ministry Book Club will be Friday, April 21, from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. in the Assembly Room. We will discuss the book, The Insanity of God by Nik Ripken and then watch the movie.

The Insanity of God is an amazing true story about faith and persecution of the Church around the world, told by those who have been persecuted for sharing their faith. Buy the book now locally or online and read it so you can join the conversation.
