From Our Pastor

We have gathered to-day to celebrate what we ought to celebrate every day as Christians: Christ is risen! We pray that today finds you wanting to shout, “He is Risen!”

If you are our guest, thank you for joining us today. We would love to be able to get to know you. Take a moment to register as a guest using the registration card attached to the bulletin. We invite you to bring this registration card to the Information Desk located near the front columns. We have a gift waiting for you there. At First Baptist Church we are passionate about two things. First, we want to connect you to Jesus. Second we want to connect you to some other folks who can help you in a life-long journey to follow Jesus.

We trust God will use this time to speak to all of us this morning and draw us closer to Him. If you have pre-school children, we suggest for your benefit, as well as for all who worship with us, that you allow us to care for and teach your children during the worship hour. We have a well-equipped area and well-trained staff to take care of your little ones while you and those around you worship this morning. Please help us in this matter.

Finally, please be reminded that we do not have any evening activities or services today. Enjoy the afternoon with your friends and families.

Steve

Women’s Ministry Book Club
Join us this Friday, April 21, from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. in the Assembly Room for our quarterly Women’s Ministry Book Club. We will watch the movie and discuss the book, The Insanity of God by Nik Ripken. Refreshments and popcorn provided.
The Insanity of God is an amazing true story about faith and persecution of the Church around the world, told by those who have been persecuted for sharing their faith. Buy the book now locally or online and read it so you can join the conversation.
