From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church. If you are our guest, thank you for joining us today. We would love to be able to connect with you. Take a moment to register as a guest using the registration card attached to the bulletin. We invite you to bring this registration card to the Information Center located near the front columns. We have a welcome gift waiting for you there.

I look forward to continuing our message series today called “Easter! So What? So What?” Our church has grown accustomed to my question, “So What?”, at the conclusion of my messages. I fell into this practice a few years ago as the result of making sure that every message ends on a note of action. As I routinely say, “We gather not so much for information, but for inspiration and transformation.”

As we journey toward Easter this year, we are pursuing what I would call the ultimate “So What?” preaching series. My preaching series through the week after Easter will be “Easter! So What?” We will be considering several questions posed in the Easter accounts in the Bible. Some of the questions come from Jesus. Other questions come from the disciples. A few of the questions come from adversaries of Jesus like Pilate. Many of the questions are our questions. I think you will discover that every question impacts us. That is, all of the questions cause us to ask “So What?”

This week the question is the implied question of the disciples. As we will note in the Gospels, the disciples seemed to have this ongoing debate about who among them was the greatest. In fact, Mark records that two of the disciples, James and John, even said in this context, “We want you to do whatever we ask.” As we will discover today, true, Godly greatness is the absolute opposite of this kind of spirit.

THIS ONE THING

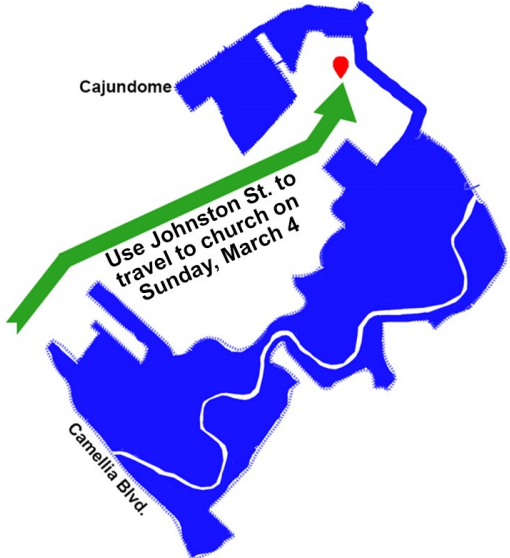

Pray that God will give each of us one person this week to share the Gospel with.

IMPORTANT INFO FOR NEXT SUNDAY

March 4 is the date for the running of the ZYDECO MARATHON. It's course will cover a large portion of Lafayette. Roads throughout much of the city will be blocked, and this almost completely surrounds First Baptist. While police will open intersections briefly when runners are not passing, in prior years extremely long delays were experienced by members on their way to Sunday services.

If you live inside the blue area on the drawing below, you will have to cross the race route at least once. If you live outside the blue area, your best option is to use Johnston St. Residents to the north will likely have to go west past the Cajundome to access Johnston St., and residents to the south will have to go west of Camellia Blvd.

Plan to allow plenty of time for the additional drive or for waiting at intersections. Detailed maps are available at the Information Center and also at fbclaf.org/zydeco.
