From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church. If you are our guest, thank you for joining us today. We would love to be able to connect with you. Take a moment to register as a guest using the registration card attached to the bulletin. We invite you to bring this registration card to the Information Center located near the front columns. We have a welcome gift waiting for you there.

I look forward to continuing our message series today called “Easter! So What?” Our church has grown accustomed to my question, “So What?” at the conclusion of my messages. I fell into this practice a few years ago as the result of making sure every message ends on a note of action. As I routinely say, “We gather not so much for information, but for inspiration and transformation.”

As we journey toward Easter this year, we are pursuing what I would call the ultimate “So What” preaching series. My preaching series through the week after Easter will be “Easter! So What?” We are considering several questions posed in the Easter accounts in the Bible. Some of the questions come from Jesus. Other questions come from the disciples. A few of the questions come from adversaries of Jesus like Pilate. Many of the questions are our questions. I think you will discover that every question impacts us. That is, all of the questions cause us to ask “So What?”

Today, we are considering one of those questions from Pilate. Struggling with his own feelings about what to do with Jesus, Pilate asked, “What is truth?” As you so well know, this is the question of many in our society today. But, this fact remains: Jesus came “to testify to the truth.”

We are now one month away from Easter. Who will you invite to be with you this coming Easter Sunday? We need to be actively sharing the “So What” of Easter. All of our hope rests in the truth of the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.
