LET HOPE IN

This week in Sunday School we celebrate the victory we have through Jesus. Because of Jesus' resurrection, nothing can defeat you, not even death. Fred Luter writes that through Christ's resurrection we move "from darkness to life; from condemned to free; from guilty to forgiven; from death to life." Talk with your friends and family this week about today's lesson.

Building Progress Report

I can almost smell the cooking of fried fish in the kitchen. Well, maybe not, but the progress on the building is going very well. Our Superintendent, Leo, is doing a great job keeping the subs on task and much work is being completed.

At this point all the steel has been erected, second floor concrete poured, and much of the underground and floor plumbing is in place. Within the next two or three weeks, the first floor will be poured, metal stud walls will be in place and the roof will be near completion.

As the physical work continues on schedule so is your faithfulness to continue to give. Thank you for honoring your financial commitment to this project. I prayerfully and anxiously await our time to use this building for God's glory and purpose.

From Our Pastor

As a Christian, every day ought to be a celebration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The resurrection of Jesus is the key to everything else that we believe. The apostle Paul gave us a glimpse of what life would be like if Christ had not been resurrected when he wrote:

“And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is empty and your faith is also empty. And if Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins! Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable.”

But, then, Paul answered his own rhetoric with this exclamation:

“But now Christ is risen from the dead, and has become the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.” (1 Corinthians 15:14, 17-20)

We have gathered today to celebrate what we ought to celebrate every day as Christians: Christ is risen! If you are a guest today, we are glad you are here. We trust that everyone who worships with us today will feel welcome, be led to worship, and be encouraged by the music and preaching. As our guest, we invite you to fill out the guest registration card attached to this bulletin. Fill out that card, bring it to the Information Desk located in the lobby, and there we have a special gift bag for you.

Finally, please be reminded that we do not have any evening activities or services today. Enjoy the afternoon with your friends and families.

Steve
